St Valentine's day Massacre
Black Country boxing Promotions

BcB Promotions will be selling there own program at the show.

Welcome to Black Country Boxing's first show of the year 'St Valentine's day Massacre' at the Stadium suite, Bescott stadium Walsall. The show will consist of 4 bouts of boxing with the former Lightweight Midlands area champ Kane Baker competing over 6 rounds of boxing. Also doing a six rounder is one of the bbcolumn's 'Boxers to Watch' for 2020 Liam Davis, Davis also picked up the best new comer award at the BBBoC Midlands awards at the end of last year.

There are two four rounder's where the opponents have already been picked, Ryan Whitehead will be making his debut against Kearon Thomas at super Middleweight. We also have a tasty contest with Clayton Bricknell looking to get back to winning ways against Daryl Pearce.

Match Maker - Errol Johnson
Referee - Shaun Messer or Kevin Parker

Liam Davies has been a professional boxer for just over a year and has amassed a unbeaten record of 6 without defeat. Davies made his debut in December of 2018 at the Holiday Inn Birmingham over 4 rounds against Khvicha Gigolashvili with Ref Shaun Messer scoring it 40-36 to Davies. Davies's first stoppage came in his 3rd fight against Pablo Narvaez at Walsall Town Hall with Davies dropping Narvaez in the second round for a TKO victory. Davies then continued to beat anyone they put in his way and got another stoppage in his first six rounder knocking out Jose Aguilar in the fourth. Davies's last fight was an absolute cracker with Stefan Nicolae coming to the Stadium Suite to win this six rounder. This was Davies's first real test which he passed with fly colours winning on refs Kevin Parkers score card 59-55.

I contacted Davies and asked him how training had gone, how he thinks the fight will go and what's next for him. He told me "I've been training hard now from Christmas time and I'm looking to start the year with a good performance as I'm fighting a decent lad in Brett Fido so I looking to win and look good in doing so. I'm then moving on to my first fight in my hometown of Telford in April with my younger brother also making his debut so exciting times". Davies finished by saying "I'm just going to make sure I do a job tonight".

Davies's Opponent

Brett Fido

Resides – Birmingham

The former Midlands area Lightweight champ Kane Baker will be doing a six rounder tonight. The former unlicensed fighter claimed the Lightweight Midlands area title at Villa park beating unbeaten fighter Ishmael Ellis on points on December 1st 2018. Baker then vacated the title to take on the very skilful English Lightweight champ Myron Mills for his title at Villa park in September of 2019 losing on a majority decision in cracking encounter.

Kane and his team then regrouped and were back out just before Christmas taking on Joe Beeden in a 6 round contest winning 60-54 on ref Shaun Messers card.

The former unlicensed fighter has a 'have gloves will travel' mentality which has seen him travel all over the United kingdom taking on the likes of Conor Benn, Sam Maxwell and Sanjeev Sahota who are all still unbeaten. Baker has even travelled to Saudi Arabia taking on Darren Surtees which was aired live on pay pre view.

Baker will be looking to get the win on this show and look to make more stories and claim more titles.

Clayton Bricknell

Age 27

Weight division - Lightweight

Nickname – Karma

Record - W-2, D-2, L-1

Stance - Orthodox

Born – Wolverhampton

Resides – Wolverhampton

Clayton Bricknell will be looking to get back to winning ways as he takes on Daryl Pearce tonight as he comes off a run of two defeats in a row. Bricknell made his debut in May 2018 beating Jamie Quinn on points then winning again in October 2018 beating Dylan Draper on points. At the start of 2019 February 23rd Bricknell took on Youssef Al Hammed at the Holte suite Villa park in a 4 rounder. The fight started well for Bricknell as he showed off his talents but the Al Hammed went down not from a punch but from some how injuring his knee in the first round. Al Hammed could not continue and ref Shaun Messer had to call the fight a technical draw to the disappointment of Bricknell and his team.

Bricknell then had a cracking six rounder against unbeaten Tion Gibbs at the Holte suite Villa park (29,06,20) losing on points .

His last fight was on the BcB 'We are Wolves' show against debutant Stu Greener just being edged out on the score card. I contacted Clayton and asked him how training has gone, how he see's the fight going and what he plans to do next in boxing? He told me "You alright mate. Training's gone great had a solid camp for this one, I feel I've hit every note. I've added a few things, changed a few that I felt we needed to work on. Of course I feel confident in my ability and the work I've put in. I believe I'll be victorious on the night". Bricknell continued "I think I will be fighting pretty soon after but my only focus right now is the fight in front of me, I don't expect this to be an easy fight and I'm not over looking my opponent".

Record – debut

Stance - Orthodox

Height – 5,11

Born – Shrewsbury

Resides – Telford

Ryan Whithead make his professional debut tonight at the Stadium suite Bescott against Kearon Thomas in a four round contest. The former Donnington ABC fighter told bcb-promotions.com about how he saw the fight going and his opponent, he said “We’re both coming in for the win. A lot of people will fight a journeyman on their debut. We’re not too far apart. We’re both there to get stuck in and go for it. It’s going to be a great event.”

“To be honest I would never take anyone’s record lightly. Thomas has been on a Frank Warren card and I’ve watched that back. He’s been in there with some top opposition and you can’t take that for granted. Records for me don’t mean anything. He’s always been an underdog. Let’s learn on the job”.

“I’ve got to adapt to the pro style. It won’t be fast paced but more about power than scoring the odd point here and there. I was a late starter to boxing, but I’ve always enjoyed it because I have been good at it. The sport has really changed my life around and for all the hard work I’ve put in I deserve some support. Thank you to anyone who has bought a ticket.”

Kearon Thomas

Age – 30

Weight division- Super Middleweight

Record - W-0, L-6, D-1,

Stance – Orthodox

Born – Walsall

Resides - Walsall

Walsall's Kearon Thomas will be looking to get his first professional win when he takes on Ryan Whitehead at the Stadium suite Bescott. This will be the first time Thomas gets to fight in his home town of Walsall on the BCB Promotions show 'St. Valentine's Day Massacre'. Thomas will be looking to break his losing streak of 0-6-1, the 30 year-old has said that he hopes a change in attitude and lifestyle will bear fruit come fight night.

He told Bcb-promotions.com "In the past I've not really been the best at training, I relied on toughness but now my fitness is booming. Having had seven previous fights with a record of six defeats and one draw means it isn't an ideal situation for any boxer but I've shown a lot of heart and in doing so have made friends for life".

Thomas finished by saying, "Winning has not been the priority in the past but, as this one is a home show, I want to get that 'w'. I see the fight as 50/50. Ryan has been in with some tough lads. I don't want to underestimate the lad. However, I'm very confident I'm going to win and wouldn't get in the ring if I didn't feel I deserved it."
